This is the third event Leslie Jenkins and I have worked on together and we have a burgeoning agenda with many guest speakers and as many vendors. Tailoring the last bit of time to fulfill the requests of the attendees is going to be challenging.

www.bmwcca.org

It's been nearly a year since we switched website providers and although there have been some evolutionary changes (rather than revolutionary) the site remains very much as it has been since February 1, 2001. If you have comments, recommendations, suggestions or questions please send them to me. Likewise, if you need a link changed or updated, or are experiencing difficulty accessing information please let me know.
